Within The Silence -- a Story about the internment of Japanese Americans during WWII by Living Voices

Ten weeks after the Japanese bombed Pearl Harbor, on February 19, 1942, Roosevelt's Executive Order 9066 created the internment camps for Americans of Japanese ancestry during World War II. Between 110,000 and 120,000 people of Japanese ancestry who lived on the Pacific coast were relocated to camps in the interior of the country. Witness this history with the Yamada family who were a Japanese American family living in Washington State. They tried to sustain faith and hope while living in an internment camp.
