RECESSIONAL

“The Great Gate of Kiev”

Please join us for a reception following the ceremony.

FACULTY SPEAKER

Carol Patterson

Carol Patterson is a Professor of Nursing who has been teaching at RVCC for the past 33 years. She will be retiring at the end of this academic year.

A Governor's appointee to the New Jersey Collaborating Center for Nursing, she has served on the New Jersey Nursing Leadership Council and the New Jersey Nursing Action Coalition. Patterson has been active in the community, serving as a Board of Trustees member of the Community Visiting Nurse Association of Somerville and as its Board Chair and Vice Chair. As a member of the New Jersey League for Nursing Board of Directors, Patterson has served as its President and has chaired several committees. She also is active as an honorary member of the Philippine Nurses Association of New Jersey.

Patterson has been the recipient of several honors from such organizations as the American Nurses Association, the New Jersey League for Nursing, the Community Visiting Nurse Association, and the New Jersey State Nurses Association.

She received her AAS/RN from Middlesex County College, a BSN from Jersey City State College, an MSN from Seton Hall University, and a postgraduate Certificate in Nursing Education from Rutgers University.

STUDENT SPEAKER

Sarah Lopez

Sarah Lopez, a Visual Arts major graduating Summa Cum Laude, has excelled in academics and has been an active member of the College community. In addition to being named to the President's List, she is a recipient of the Chris Koep Memorial Scholarship, the Student Involvement Grant, and the Academic Awards for Excellence in Visual Arts and Service Learning.

Lopez has worked to promote creativity in the RVCC community. She co-founded the Zine Club, Spark'D, and has served as the club's President for the past four semesters, producing full-color publications that feature artwork and writing by creative-minded students. Lopez also has been involved with numerous mural painting projects on and off campus, including a mural designed and painted independently for RVCC's Arts Building.

This fall, she plans to transfer to Mason Gross School of the Arts at Rutgers University, where she will continue to develop her skills in painting and graphic design.
