FACULTY SPEAKER

Dr. John Sichel, Professor of Music

John Sichel is completing his 16th year of fulltime teaching at RVCC. Before that he was an adjunct faculty member at the College for 10 years. He also served as co-chair of the Arts & Design department from 2017-2023. At RVCC he has taught generations of music students such subjects as music theory, musicianship, composition, and music history. He conducted the RVCC Chorale from 2009-2023.

Professor Sichel received his B.A. in music from Princeton University, his M.A. in composition from Columbia University, and his D.M.A. in composition from the Yale School of Music, where he studied with Jacob Druckman, Martin Bresnick, and Nicholas Maw.

Dr. Sichel's music has been played at venues around the country, as well as in Europe, Asia, and South America. His recent works include the song cycle Paradoxides, on poems of Don McKay; a Piano Saxophone Quintet, recorded for Ravello Records; and a Sonata for Viola and Piano, which premiered at RVCC. His hobbies include birding, astronomy, and writing fiction, a small sample of which has been published under a pseudonym.
