

Join us virtually for

GENOCIDE AWARENESS MONTH

The RVCC Institute of Holocaust and Genocide Studies will offer an online series of FREE programs presented in partnership with Dr. Ellen Kennedy, executive director of World Without Genocide.

For additional information, contact Michelle Edgar at michelle.edgar@raritanval.edu

ALL PROGRAMS ARE FROM 10-11AM. TOPICS INCLUDE:

FRI 4/10 From Democracy to Fascism
How Nazis reshaped the rule of law to dismantle democracy and establish total authoritarian control.

FRI 4/17 The Post-War Crisis: Refugees and Displacement
Examining the lives of the individuals and families who were forced into motion, the limited places they could turn for refuge and the ways in which international law transformed in response to this unprecedented human displacement.

FRI 4/24 Seeking Justice After WWII
How the world addressed the Holocaust through trials, restitution, memorialization, and peacebuilding, while questioning whether these efforts were truly just.

FRI 5/1 Challenges to Democracy Today
Exploring the risks and suggesting strategies to support human rights locally and globally.

REGISTER:

