

The Institute for Holocaust and Genocide Studies Seminar for Educators- April 1, 2019

Grand Conference Center 4 – 7:30
118 Lamington Road, Branchburg, New Jersey 08876-1265
(908) 526-1200, Ext.8524 • website: http://www.raritanval.edu

4 PM – 5 PM *Keynote Address by Ariel Burger, author of WITNESS- Lessons from Elie Wiesel’s Classroom. The book will be available for purchased for $26.00. Book Signing with Ariel Burger following Keynote Address

ARIEL BURGER is a writer, artist, teacher, and rabbinical scholar who studied with Elie Wiesel. Using the lessons that he learned from Elie Wiesel, Ariel encourages us to explore moral complexities; be sensitized to indifference; combat hatred; embrace memory; accept “the other”; and through social action reduce human suffering. Ariel maintains faith and hope that together we can create a better World for future generations.

5:00-5:30 PM Documentary produced at RVCC: Challenges for The Future of Holocaust Education. Q & A with Educators interviewed in the film, Harry Hillard, Director and Peppy Margolis, Producer

5:30 PM – 7:30 PM Spotlight on Contemporary Antisemitism, Professional Development for Educators
Presenter: Peter Nelson, Director of Holocaust Education Echoes & Reflections

ECHOES & REFLECTIONS

TEACHING THE HOLOCAUST. INSPIRING THE CLASSROOM.

Antisemitism is not a relic of the past, but a hatred the world struggles with today. It is important that educators have the resources and tools to feel prepared to talk about contemporary manifestations of antisemitism and hate crimes with students. During this workshop, a facilitator will share video testimony and other primary and secondary sources that can be used to engage students and spark classroom discussions around current events and the challenging topic of antisemitism in today’s world.

*The keynote speaker is free and open to the public.

Fee: $15, includes dinner and refreshments. Payment is accepted at the door.

Register for Workshop Online: https://goo.gl/forms/XxvvqqtCKivmf8Xk1

Registration is required for the Professional Development Seminar