

Raritan Valley Community College Adjunct Faculty Excellence in Teaching Award

This $1,000 award, made possible through a generous donation to the RVCC Foundation, acknowledges outstanding instruction by an adjunct professor at RVCC. This award will be presented to an adjunct faculty member annually (for at least the 2019-20 and 2020-21 academic years). Faculty, students, staff or alumni may nominate a candidate, with the final decision to be made by a committee nominated jointly by the Provost and the Executive Director of the Foundation. Our goal is to conduct the nomination process, review candidates, and select the awardee by Friday, May 1.

Criteria for Nomination

Nominees should have all or most of the following strengths:

- Broad, thorough knowledge of the subject area.
- The ability to convey new concepts to students effectively.
- Exemplary classroom instruction as evidenced by student evaluations and/or peer observations.
- Demonstrated service to their department, the College, and/or community.
- Enthusiasm about teaching and engagement with students.
- Outstanding dedication to student success.
