

RAYMOND H. BATEMAN LECTURE SERIES Spring 2019

An opportunity for members of the public to join with the RVCC community in hearing from experts about issues impacting our communities, state and nation. All events are free.

SCIENCE

Honey Bees and Pollination. Presented by Adele Barree, beekeeper
March 18, 11:30 a.m. Whitman Science Center Room 100/101

Neurobiology of Mirror Neurons. Presented by Dr. Dan Teoduru, physician
March 25, 11:30 a.m. Whitman Science Center Room 100/101

Bogus Stuff: How Statistics and Logic are Misrepresented in the Media & in Everyday Life. Presented by Howard Beroff, retired biomedical engineer
April 1. Whitman Science Center, Room 100/101

Shape Your Future: Energy, Climate, and Human Rights, an Evening with Dr. James Hansen. An Adjunct Professor at Columbia University's Earth Institute, Dr. Hansen directs the Program on Climate Science, Awareness and Solutions. He previously served as Director of the NASA Goddard Institute for Space Studies.
Monday, April 8, at 6 p.m. RVCC Conference Center

Mirror Neurons and Their Role in Psychiatric Disorders. Presented by Dr. Nichat Kulkarni, Department of Psychiatry, Brookdale Medical Center, Brooklyn, NY
April 15, 11:30 a.m. Whitman Science Center Room 100/101

Neuroendocrine & Medical Consequences of Mirror Neurons Disorders. Presented by Dr. Artur Carvalho, Department of Medicine, St. Michaels' Medical Center, Newark
April 22, 11:30 a.m. Whitman Science Center Room 100/101

SOCIAL SCIENCE & HUMANITIES

What is Diversity? Presented by RVCC Professors Brandyn Heppard & Glenn Ricketts.
March 27, 1:00 p.m. RVCC Grand Conference Room C

Justice for All – An Evening of Art & Conversation on Social Justice and Equality
Saturday, March 30, at 8:00 p.m. Nash Theatre