II. Catalog Description

Prerequisites: ARTS-210 ACRYLIC AND OIL PAINTING I OR ARTS-121 WATERCOLOR I OR ARTS-111 BASIC DRAWING II

The landscape will be explored as a means of expressing our contemporary world via realism, metaphor and abstraction. Students will work outdoors at various sites on and off campus, including the rural landscape, cityscape, industrial sites and other outdoor locations. They will also develop ideas using source material such as sketches, props, and memory. Students will work in the color medium/media with which he/she has prior experience, including oil, acrylic, pastel, and watercolor. Collage and experimental use of media will be encouraged. Contemporary, post-modern and historical landscape painting and drawing will be discussed and addressed in their work. Students will purchase their own art supplies.

III. Statement of Course Need

- A. This course fulfills an Advanced Studio Elective requirement in the A.F.A. Visual Arts Degree. It is a course particularly relevant to students interested in pursuing careers as studio artists. It is also a course of interest to life-long learning students. It is important to offer a course with the focus on landscape since it is a major subject in art in many cultures throughout the world, including ours. School of Visual Arts in NYC accepts this course as part of an articulation agreement between RVCC's AFA Visual Arts and their BFA Fine Arts Degree.
- B. This course has a lab component that utilizes a large painting studio with painting easels, glass palettes, flammable cabinets, sinks and other specialized equipment. In the provided studio, students also have an access to drying rack for works in progress.
- C. This course generally transfers as a visual art program elective dependent on the institution.

IV. Place of Course in College Curriculum

- A. Free Elective
- B. This course does not serve as a General Education course.
- C. The course meets a requirement in the following program: A.F.A. Visual Arts Advanced Studio Elective
- D. To see course transferability: a) for New Jersey schools, go to the NJ Transfer website, www.njtransfer.org; b) for all other colleges and universities, go to the individual websites.
